SHTUDENT HEPPATHY HAT H OF H

Shtudent heppathy covers the Hewniversity of Hlobovia along with nine feet of snow, igloos, bares, wolves, shtudents and other nogoodniks.

This was gung brought out at a meeting of Shtudents' Council held last weeknik. Also brought out from meetnik was Sopbagle McLushnik, shtudent tamperance delegate, who was taken out on a stretcher stiff as a boardnik.

Prasident T. V. Flournik opened the meeting by calling to order. Sopbagle McLushnik, tamperance delegate, ordered three cases of Pale Ale and mickey of Rye. President Flournik retaliated with a soaked mop and Miss Hipless Screechnik, Wauneita rap, ended the fray with a wet blanket.

"Heppathy engulfs our one shtudent," resumed J. V., unruffled. The house ecnik rap, Unruffled Mc-Threadbare, stood up to object and Pres. coolly flattened her with a frozen agenda.

"Enrolment has increased in the last 50 years," bellowed the president as a hush fell over the room accompanied by the ceiling which also fell in. "Since the war the influx of veterans gung brought our enrolment up to one shtudent."

The engineering rap, Off-the-Beam Stressnik, exchanged sly comments with the education rap, Sackcloth McHemp, who bid four-no-trump, three forwards, and the Umpire State Building for Broda. The two raps looked up hotly as the prasident oilily poured steaming tallow over them. Rast of council hummed "For He's a Jolly Goodnik Tallow," and the meeting continued.

"The fact remains," resumed T. V., "that our only shtudent can belong to 100 clobes, 62 societies, 35 associations and the S.C.M. (Shtudents Can't Mush). But this lazy nogoodnik refused to join any of zem. What do you suggest?"

The meeting immediately broke out into a babble, the prasident broke out into a rash and a sweat-stained, exhausted, panting (he used to be tailor) messenger broke into the room and handed a despatch to the prasident.

The prasident raised his hand for silence, and Divanbagle Silence, a seductive coed sidled up to his side and fluttered her eyelids which took off in V formation and headed south for the winter.

"Pipple," said Flournik, "our problem of heppathy has been solved."

"What is the answer?" asked Gristlenoggin Muscelnik, the UAB (U Are Bores) rap.

"Pipple, our only shtudent failed all his Christmas hexams and has been bounced. We hev no problem. We hev no shtudents," said T. V.

The meetink dissolved in a weak solution of HCl, ethynol and anti-freeze, and everyone gung agreed that it certainly vas a weak solution.

Haralading the glorious New Year mit bladdshot eyes and sore haddis, returning by boss, train and schanks pony, after the usual haliday of dis-sapation, come those dewy eyed vir-ginal youngsters, the leaders of to-morrow—returning to their familiar ivy covered haunts, the Grandnik, Lincoln, Kang Hedvard, and for the temparant, the Roseberryunik. Yes, returning mit their hat leetle hands clatched around nice rolls of Ras-buchniks, given tham by loffing parents, soon to swell the trasury of the local dence halls, and Gavernment stores.

The Hewniversity, however, did not let the city of Hedmanton forgat its prasence. Seen under its tables were some of our old Halma Mater's bast known shtudents.

Smaternities once again caught the Huletide sphirit by holding oan house every night and morning, en-tertaining all their old frands from the Rainbownik and Memorial.

Hectivities worthy of note included the Kappa Signiks, who celabrated the buying of their new housenik by holding a house-wracking party in their old one. According to their neighbors, the party was a huge success. Phi Kappa Pi celabrated the Huletide season by their old established custam of ceramoniously brakking bottles in the fireplace. Three dazzen bottles and one fire-place was broknik. The Deke carollers once more delighted their neighbors with chosan selactions that had proved so popular in the past. In recagnition of this popular form of hentertainment, lights went on for blocks haround, and phones rang stadily for some time. Bewild-ering the milkman by haccusing him of being Santa Claus, were those fun loffing girls of Happa Halpha Theta. They sadd he had a red suitnik on. Poor chepp, he short-changed himself a pondnik of bat-ter. Which all goes to show you what a rosy glow will do.

Worthy of note were the New Year's Heve Hectivities of three co-ads who share a suite close to the Hewniversity. Two of tham partook of the holiday season at St. Halbert. Upon asking the third why she didn't spand her evening with tham, she replied in true Christmas fashion, "Oh, we went to Moronville, there was no room at the Inn."

The Faculty too, partook of Hule-tide cheer. Two mambers of the Hengineering Smaculty were seen halding forth at the MacDonaldnik, celabrating New Year's Heve on De-cember 28. Oh vell, vat is a daze or two between frands.

The pipples who write this column wish you all a Heppy New Year, espacially the Senatnik, the Shtu-dent's Council, Hewiniversity Apa-thetic Bored, and the Leadnik Key Society.

Halberta Co-Ads Hup Hin Harms Over Waw-Waw

By Noodnik Boodnik IV
From Gatenik's Halberta Bureau

Hadmonton, Halberta—Hewniversity of Halberta co-ads not gung get chance at dating males like they thot. Waw-waw- week-end, spes-hul form of bourgeois sports competishun in which wimmen take men to dances, shows and hother types of native rituals has been cancelled indefinitely.

This is onusual procedure in this cuntree, when wimmen treat men. Have seen plenty wimmen with large bank rolls while men reduced to reaching into pocket up to elbows for small change. Now appears that one wedge the male elemunt had driven in feminine wurd will not come off.

Becose of this native costum your correspondunt requires wage raise. Hah, these primitive, native girls!
